

Joan relocates

After 40 years in Dorchester Joan has moved to luxury accommodation at Abbeyfield House, in York. Joan says "I wasn't sure about moving but the residents here are very nice and I have already made some good friends". A staff member at Abbeyfield House who wishes to remain anonymous commented "now we have found her the right church and a Mother's Union she is fine, just don't try serving her mashed potato for lunch...".

Deah celebrates 90th birthday

October saw a major Monk gathering to celebrate Deah's 90th birthday (aka Anne Kemp). Back row: Paul, Helen, Steve, Simon, Linda (hiding), Laura, Tom, Ray, Andrew, Richard, Sarah. Front row: Deah, Steph, David, Ruth, Tim.

Birth announcement

Edith sister to Ray, born to Paul and Helen Monk, 2nd September 2014, St Thomas's Hospital, Westminster.

Tour de wot?

West Tanfield, North Yorkshire saw the highlight of this year's Tour. VIP spectators included Sarah, Richard, Laura and Tom (pictured). The Duke and Duchess of York also came but were thankfully well out of the way by the time the riders came through.

Travel Section

Khao Sok Rainforest Camp, February - A guest waits on her luxury floating tent prior to kayaking, gibbons and lemurs sighted.

Positano seen from the path of the Gods, October - the first view of this charming town when walking the Amalfi coast.

